

Organization 1: Alliance of Associations of Retirees and Seniors of Quebec URL: <https://macommunaute.ca/bottin-des-agences/alliancedesassociationsdesretraitesetdainesduquebec/> Website: None Description: ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION Contact details 3, Carré Cummings, Montréal QC H3W 3E8 514-342-1234 514-739-6899 The email address of this organization is unknown, please contact by phone. This organization belongs to you? Claim management of this file! Mission Improve the quality of life of retirees by promoting mutual assistance, social inclusion and access to adapted services. Our objective is to support and promote the contribution of seniors to community of Montreal, by offering enriching activities and defending their rights. Join us to be a strong voice for retirees and to create an environment welcoming and supportive for all seniors. Description The Alliance of Associations of Retirees and d'Ainés du Québec, based in Montreal, is a community organization committed to the well-being retirees and seniors in the region. Our mission is to accompany and support this valuable community through various activities and services adapted to their needs. Specialized in the areas of retirement and retiree associations, our organization sets up initiatives aimed at improving the quality of life of seniors, fostering social ties and promoting physical and mental well-being. Our interventions revolve around the implementation of meetings, workshops and conferences on various themes such as health, prevention, culture and leisure. We also encourage social and civic engagement retirees through solidarity actions and community projects. Organization of cultural and recreational events Prevention and awareness workshops Solidarity and volunteers In the heart of the city of Montreal, the Alliance of Associations of Retirees and Seniors of Quebec is a key player in local community life, working for the well-being and the development of seniors. Join us in this great collective adventure dedicated to better life for retirees and seniors in our beautiful region!